EF International Language Campuses

Mario de la Rosa García

Studied at EF San Diego Point Loma and reached B2

Understanding and Listening - The student can :

Understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar. Understand most radio, TV programmes and films without too much effort unless the accent is strong and unfamiliar.

Reading - The student can :

Read articles and reports concerned with contemporary problems in which the writers adopt particular attitudes or viewpoints. Understand contemporary literary prose and some specialised texts.

Spoken Interaction - The student can :

Interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible. Take active part in discussion in familiar contexts, accounting for and sustaining views held.

Spoken Production - The student can :

Present clear, detailed descriptions on a wide range of subjects related to fields of interest. Explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

Writing - The student can :

Write clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects related to interests. Write an essay or report passing on information or giving reasons in support of or against a particular point of view. Write letters highlighting the significance of events and experiences.
